

Same day trip to Agra

(Except Friday)

DAY 01 : DELHI – AGRA – DELHI (200 KMS – 4 HRS) each side

After breakfast leave for Agra.

Agra, the city of Taj Mahal is one of the most popular global touristic destinations. The city witnessed its golden period during the Mughal dynasty, wherein Emperor Shah Jahan presented this world “Taj Mahal” an epitome of love, depicted in pure white marble in remembrance of his beloved wife Queen Mumtaz Mahal. Taj Mahal is till date marveled for its beauty and intricate workmanship depicted centuries ago. This ancient Mughal capital city is home to various architectural splendors including various World Heritage Sites.

Upon arrival visit Taj Mahal.

Taj Mahal is one of the Seven wonders in the world and a must see place in India. It is the living specimen of romantic love life of Shah Jahan and his favorite beautiful wife Mumtaz Mahal. The construction of this beautiful monument was completed in 1653 AD. The Mughal King Sha Jahan built this as the final resting place for the queen Mumtaz.

After visit of Taj Mahal proceed for Lunch.

After lunch visit Agra Fort.

It is believed that it took nearly 22 years to complete the grandeur palace. There are 22 small domes over the Taj Mahal, denoting the 22 years and the verses of holy Koran are inscribed on the domes. The white marble building changes its hue with the variations in the daylight.

Following visit of Taj Mahal, proceed for Agra Fort.

Nestled on the west banks of River Yamuna, this crescent shaped fort was commissioned by Akbar, one of the greatest Mughal Emperors, in 1565. Since then, his descendants Jehangir, Shah Jahan and even Aurangzeb have added extensions to the fort. Surrounded by mighty ramparts, the complex has within the fort has several palaces, gardens, halls, and other historical structures.

A visit to the Agra Fort complements visits to the Taj Mahal, as the fort itself offers great views of the Taj Mahal from across the Yamuna.

Later drive back to Delhi.
